

Goh Soon Hee Derrick (吴顺喜) is a Member of Parliament for Nee Soon GRC for the 14th Parliament and the Managing Director and Head of Group Audit of DBS Bank.

Derrick has over 27 years of experience in finance and banking, holding management roles at Amex and DBS Bank. He lived and worked at Amex for 10 years overseas based in Paris, London and New York. In 2007, he returned to Singapore with his family as both he and his wife wanted their children to grow up and be educated back home.

He always has the people he serves in mind. When POSB was under his leadership in 2012, Derrick introduced the sit-down queue system for customers with the elderly and young children in mind. The bank also set up automated teller machines for aurally and visually handicapped and specialised banking centres in the heartlands and at foreign workers' recreation centre.

Derrick served National Service at the CID and subsequently at Bedok Police Division where he was NS (DAC) and Deputy Police Commander until 22nd June 2020. He also served as a District Councilor with Southwest Community Development Council from 2013 till July 2020 and in grassroots organizations at Yishun since 2017. He currently serves on the Board of Governors at HomeTeamNS and previously, the National Library as its Chair of Board Audit and Risk Committee.

Derrick attended St Patrick's School and Victoria Junior College in his growing up years. Subsequently, he studied at Nanyang Technological University where he graduated with Bachelor of Accountancy (Honours). He also received an Amex MBA scholarship where he graduated with Master of Business Administration (with Honors) from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania.

He is married with a daughter and two sons.
