10. Deputy Prime Minister:

STATE MARINE ENSIGN: That this Assembly adopts the State Marine Ensign as described and shown in Paper Misc. 6 of 1960.

● 11. CONDEMNATION AND SUSPENSION OF MEMBER:

Resumption of Debate on Motion made by the Deputy Prime Minister (19th December, 1960), “That this House condemns the Member for Hong Lim for his dishonourable conduct unbecoming of an elected representative of the people in that he repeatedly used his privilege in this Assembly as a cloak for spreading malicious falsehoods to unjustly injure innocent persons both inside and outside this Assembly; that he be suspended from the service of this Assembly until such time as (i) he apologises to this Assembly for his dishonourable conduct; (ii) he unreservedly withdraws his unfounded allegations against the Prime Minister and the Minister for Labour and Law; and (iii) he assures the Assembly that he will not persist in abusing his privilege in this Assembly by uttering malicious falsehoods, unless he be prepared when challenged to repeat outside the Assembly the charges he makes in the Assembly.”.

Question proposed (19th December, 1960), "That this House condemns the Member for Hong Lim for his dishonourable conduct unbecoming of an elected representative of the people in that he repeatedly used his privilege in this Assembly as a cloak for spreading malicious falsehoods to unjustly injure innocent persons both inside and outside this Assembly;"

Assembly to resolve itself into a Committee of the whole Assembly, pursuant to a resolution passed on 23rd December, 1960, to consider the matter raised in the first part of the Motion, namely,—

"That this House condemns the Member for Hong Lim for his dishonourable conduct unbecoming of an elected representative of the people in that he repeatedly used his privilege in this Assembly as a cloak for spreading malicious falsehoods to unjustly injure innocent persons both inside and outside this Assembly;"
